

Evacuation System

National government

Present situation and anticipation of armed attack situations etc.

Issuance and notification of warnings

Areas under threat of armed attacks or where the occurrence of armed attacks has been recognized

Matters that should be informed to residents and private and public bodies

Instructions on evacuation measures

Areas from which residents need to be evacuated

Areas to which residents are evacuated

Outline of measures that should be taken by relevant organizations with respect to evacuation of residents

Prefectural government

Present situation and anticipation of armed attack situations etc.

Notification of warnings

Areas under threat of armed attacks or where the occurrence of armed attacks has been recognized

Matters that should be informed to residents and private and public bodies

Instructions of evacuation

Areas from which residents need to be evacuated

Areas to which residents are evacuated

Main evacuation routes

Transportation means for evacuation; etc.

Municipal government

"A warning has been issued. Area xxx is under attack. Please act calmly."

Areas from which residents need to be evacuated are xxx. Areas to which residents are evacuated are xxx. The evacuation route is xxx. The evacuation method is xxx. The residents are requested to evacuate immediately following the lead of municipal government officials.

"If the Government of Japan deems that it is urgently necessary to protect the lives, bodies, and property of the people from armed attacks, the Government will issue warnings and promptly notify prefectural governors. And when it is necessary to evacuate residents, the Government will instruct prefectural governors to take evacuation measures."

"I see. Then, prefectural governors notify us of warnings and give evacuation instructions through broadcasting and disaster administration radio."

"That's right."

