

Response to Armed Attack Disaster

Ensuring the security of facilities, such as dams and power plants

Containing contamination of chemical substances etc.

Establishing hazard areas

Establishing hazard areas so that people will not enter dangerous places

Fire fighting

Fire fighting to extinguish fire and rescue victims

"In order to minimize the damage caused by armed attacks, the national and local governments deal with the situation in a unified manner."

