

Outline of Map Exercises in Osaka Prefecture

1. Date and time

November 2, 2006 (Thu.) 9:00 - 12:30

2. Exercise sites

Osaka Prefectural Government

3. Assumption

Bombing terror attacks occurred at several places such as railway stations and railway carriages in Osaka prefecture, causing many casualties. Subsequently, a claim of responsibility that also suggests another bombing terror attack has been posted on the Internet.

4. Major exercises

- (1) Exercises for the initial response of Osaka prefecture upon occurrence of emergency response situations (information gathering, reporting, and cooperation among related organizations)
- (2) Exercises to establish and operate the Osaka Prefectural Emergency Response Situations Task Force

5. Participating organizations

Cabinet Secretariat; Fire and Disaster Management Agency; Ground Self-Defense Force; Osaka Coast Guard Office; Osaka prefecture; Osaka City; Osaka Police Headquarters; Osaka Office of the Japanese Red Cross Society; Central Japan Railway Company; West Japan Railway Company; Hankyu Railway; and Hanshin Electric Railway

*186 participants in total (including those who participated in administrative staff training)

Prefectural Emergency Response Headquarters

Meeting of the Prefectural Emergency Response Headquarters